

AUDITIONS MONOLOGUE

We will tell you about ourselves and how we live, and you can tell us stories of your life.

Here in the desert, we love to hear stories.

My children, let us give thanks for the bountiful food.

And let us also give thanks for the presence of this brave young man whom we honor here tonight.

We all have a story.

But not all of us know what it is.